PRICE LIST

SEASON 1926-27

R. F. D. 2

LAUREL, MD.

WE guarantee all stock to be true to name, free from disease and to reach you in good growing condition. We will cheerfully replace any that prove otherwise. The color descriptions in this list are intended to give only the general color effect. Detailed descriptions of the newer varieties will be furnished on request. Prices quoted are for strong divisions—field grown stock only. We will not substitute unless requested, but suggest that second choice be given.

TERMS—Tubers selected at shows or in the field to the amount of $5.00 or over will be reserved until May 1st upon payment of a deposit of at least 25%. We will give extra value on orders paid in full at such times. Field orders under $5.00 and mail orders should be accompanied by cash in full. All orders are taken subject to stock being unsold and will be filled in rotation as received. We prepay carriage charges.

In addition to the varieties listed we grow many others in small amount in regard to which we solicit correspondence.

For those who wish to leave the selection to us we will prepare collections from $5.00 to $40.00 per dozen, in which cases extra value will be given.

GOLDIE M. PAPPE
THEO. F. PAPPE

We also grow the finest of Iris and Gladioli.

Introductions for 1927

SESQUI

It is an easy name to remember at this time and we believe that the beautiful dahlia that we have so called will linger long in your memory after seeing it as it grows in the garden. The colors are orange buff blended with grenadine pink, and as combined in the flower give a new and very pleasing effect. The petals are long and pointed, and while the form is usually decorative, there are sometimes flowers which would fall in the hybrid cactus class. The form, size, stems and floriferousness are all up to our usual standard ..... $10.00

SUN MAID

This is a large decorative of an unusually lovely color. The outer rows of petals are a light salmon pink tipped with lemon yellow, while the tightly-closed centre is pure golden yellow. The bloom is lotus shaped with slightly cupped petals. The medium-sized bushes bear an abundance of these beautiful flowers on long stiff stems. 10.00

NOREEN

This decorative dahlia is of an entirely new shade. The color is a rich dark raspberry red with slightly lighter shadings. The shiny dark green foliage furnishes a wonderful setting for the heavy blooms and gives a general effect of great beauty. The stems are exceptionally long and strong and hold the flowers fully erect..... 5.00

Introduced in 1926

MARION MELIDA PAPPE,

(named for our young daughter) is a hybrid cactus, and, without exception, the finest, showiest dahlia in our gardens. At this writing one plant bears seven gorgeous blooms, held on long, strong stems, none of them under eight and one-half inches in diameter, and the largest ten and one-half inches—and this without forcing. In color it is a blending of lemon and apricot shading to peach pink. The reverse is suffused with aster purple, which shows on the twisted tips of the outer petals. It is a beautiful, softly-blended bloom by artificial light and a wonderful keeper. Easily a prize-winner at any show. Withdrawn from sale to increase stock.

GOVERNOR ALBERT C. RITCHIE

is a decorative that is universally admired. The color is apricot yellow tinged with grenadine red and showing an almost scarlet reverse on the opening petals. The beauty of the bloom lies in a play of colors that cannot be described. The bushes are extremely vigorous in growth, well branched, and each branch topped with a great, beautiful bloom that looks you proudly in the face. Since we greatly admire this latter trait in people as well as in dahlias, we have named it for the Governor of our State.....$ 7.50

MARGARET SAYRE

is a decided acquisition to any garden. In form it is a decorative of immense size on long stems. Its foliage is an odd shade of green, very much like holly. Can you picture this large, deep rose pink bloom very slightly tipped and blended gold? It is exquisite, without a single fault to mar its beauty. And, best of all, it is extremely free flowering—a regular "cut and come again" dahlia..... $4.00
